In early March, we long for a day spent with friends letting our eyes wander over beautiful surroundings, sharing a meal, and laughing through the afternoon. A Winter's Respite offers a tour and lunch at Meadow Brook Hall in nearby Rochester, MI., followed by The Spitfire Grill, an afternoon delight at the Meadow Brook Theatre.

A National Historic Landmark, Meadow Brook Hall is the historic home built by Matilda Dodge Wilson, widow of automobile pioneer John Dodge, and her second husband, lumber broker Alfred Wilson. Constructed between 1926 and 1929 for $4 million, the 110-room, 88,000 square foot mansion represents one of the finest examples of Tudor-revival architecture in America. The expansive collection includes family archives and original furnishing. After lunch in the estate's dining room (lunch will be roast breast of chicken, apple pie, and tea/coffee. A vegetarian option is available on request upon arrival), we will travel a short distance by bus to the Meadow Brook Theatre for an afternoon at The Spitfire Grill where efforts to raffle off the only eatery in town start things popping! <http://www.mbtheatre.com/the-spitfire-grill>. There are 19 rows in the theater on a slope to the stage area. Bus boarding will begins at 8:30 a.m. to ensure a departure at 9:00 a.m.

If you have concerns or questions about participating, please call Lisa Barton at 734-761-2540.
