This trip is being offered in conjunction with OLLI’s Great Michigan Read program on October 21, 2019, featuring Dr. Mona Hanna-Attisha’s book, What the Eyes Don’t See: A Story of Crisis, Resistance, and Hope in an American City.

On this day trip, OLLI members will visit and learn about exciting developments occurring in the city, including:
• Educare Flint, a learning network for early childhood education to lessen the achievement gap
• The Hurley Children’s Clinic
• Flint Fresh: enjoy a Flint Fresh lunch and learn about this non-profit food hub that works to get healthy food to Flint residents

The day will, also, include a progress report from Flint city officials, and a guided bus tour of the city’s murals which highlight the recent Flint Public Art Project, showcasing artists from all over the world.
